Relations with Stakeholders

As a member of society, a corporation cannot operate their business activities without obtaining trust from society.

Recognizing the extreme importance of communication with our stakeholders, Murata works to build better partnerships with its stakeholders.

Growing as a Reliable Company

Murata conducts its business activities keeping in mind its relationships with its various stakeholders. Murata's wide variety of stakeholders include customers, shareholders, investors, employees, suppliers, governments and local residents. Murata believes that a corporation should not only pursue profits, but also have a great influence on society. If it fails to gain society's trust, it will not be able to operate its business activities effectively and productively. To enjoy the confidence of society, it is necessary for us to sincerely listen to our stakeholders, and meet their requests. Repeated communication with our stakeholders enables us to consider the roles we should play, the challenges we should address, and the goals we should set and achieve, among other things. Through such communication, we aim to become a more reliable company.

We provide high quality products and excellent services that can satisfy our customers. We also aim for appropriate disclosure of information, including about product safety.

With the aim of creating a workplace that is comfortable and easy to work in, we will quarantee equal employment opportunities as well as occupational health and safety, and promote human resource development based on respect for each individual employee.

We intend to establish mutually trusting relationships with our suppliers so that our business connection with them is one of co-prosperity. Moreover, Murata will adhere to ethics, laws and regulations in order to perform our business transactions fairly.

While valuing communication with society and our local communities, we will contribute toward building better communities through local community activities and academic support activities.

As basic policies, we aim to improve our corporate value and pay stable dividends. We will also disclose information in a proper and timely manner.

While fulfilling our responsibility of paying taxes to the national and local governments, we will carry out business activities in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.

Global Environment

The Earth provides us with both resources and energy that serves as the basis for all our business activities. We will strive to make effective use of these precious resources and give priority to business operations that place fewer burdens on the global environments.
